New Sage Endorsed Solution Simplifies Remote Access to Sage ERP MAS 500

Developed by RKL eSolutions, eBusiness Suite for Sage ERP MAS 500 is hand-picked by Sage as an Endorsed Solution after meeting rigorous strategic, technology, and integration criteria.

Lancaster, PA – January 24, 2010 – RKL eSolutions (www.rklesolutions.com), a Sage ERP MAS 500 reseller and technology provider headquartered in Pennsylvania, has announced that their eBusiness Suite for Sage ERP MAS 500 has been approved as an Endorsed Solution. This browser-based extension developed by RKL was hand-picked by Sage after meeting rigorous strategic, technology, and integration criteria. The add-on module will be branded as “eBusiness Suite for Sage ERP MAS 500 Powered by RKL” and is available immediately to all Sage ERP MAS 500 customers who are on a maintenance plan and Sage business partners.

Joe Noll, President at RKL, is excited about unveiling the eBusiness Suite for MAS 500 as a Sage Endorsed Solution. “For our customers, eBusiness Suite for Sage ERP MAS 500 is an important part of their online store and ecommerce initiative. They love the web-based order entry, online customer service tools, and ability to enter quotes and orders using a web browser or handheld device. We think it’s going to be well-received among other Sage ERP MAS 500 customers and Sage channel partners.”

“Sage is pleased to endorse the eBusiness Suite for Sage ERP MAS 500, Powered by RKL. The eBusiness Suite provides Sage ERP MAS 500 customers with a state of the art ecommerce solution and web services integration module that greatly improves sales efficiency and customer service levels, while simplifying 3rd party application integration. Additionally the eBusiness Suite is a great foundation for extending Sage ERP MAS 500 with Connected Services.” says Scott Zandbergen, VP Product Management, Sage.

For customers already using Sage ERP MAS 500, eBusiness Suite functions as a web-based interface providing remote access to orders, shipments, invoices, payments, and other important customer service information. With the ability to enter quotes, orders, and RMAs from any web browser, eBusiness Suite can be an important tool for sales reps and executives that are often on the road or simply away from the office.
